

Mother Remembered

'Wherever you go, there you are,'
she said. 'Everyone is somewhere.'
Two of many sayings offered in streams that never seemed to cease.

Amazed by life, and amazing,
she drew such gems from deep within.
And her best, when breathing her last,
brought benediction to us all.

It was her heritage recalled,
given up now to descendants.
The wisest word, offered only in a sigh: 'Thanks for ev'rything!'

JRH
12/7/03