

Pass It On!

Our inheritance flows
like a fresh, clean stream from the heart of God.

Who knows where it begins
or finally ends
in oceans of time?

Whatever we may say
is inadequate
to trace it clearly,

except that God once gave
and still is giving
out of love for us.

We are never worthy
to receive or share
the fruits of such grace!

No wonder we long now
to offer God thanks,
"Thanks for ev'rything,"

and, after the offering,
to reach, serve, and love
those yet without hope.

JRH
The Covenant Companion
June, 1991 (Revised)