

Treasures

On leaving home for Europe today we share with each of you as with your spouses and children a beautiful daily reminder in our home of the treasure every one of you is and all of you are together.

From left to right memories abound, Judy, Eric, Mary, Peter, and Paul, each unique, yet each bound as well to us, to the Lord, and to family, deeply rooted in God's grace and firmly kept in his love.

Somehow we could not travel away without sharing this treasure, which for us is far from spent.
We thank God for you and yours, for everything you have been and are and the promise you remain in our lives.

Dad and Mom
7/5/2000

